He trust, he says, that it is but a passing craze, and warns the Irish people against giving support to the dynamicra and Invincibles, whose policy is acter, and if not abandoned at once will truin the cause of Ireland. In conclusion he says there are other men and other means to save Ireland.

Ten years ago a penniless man, with a peculiarly shaped head, made a bargain with a London professor of anatomy by payment of the man's funeral expenses. Meanwhile the man became wealthy, and when he died the other day his friends tried to avoid fulfilling the contract. But the professor insisted, and law courts. Pending the decision, the defunct gentleman has been buried with his head on his shoulders.

Food that is Poisoned

Food that is Poisoned by unclean teeth freeds dysapesia. Such, at least, is the declared opinion of medical men. Remedy the evil with purifying, aromatic Sozodont, which bears away corrosive particles which lodge in the teeth and produce an acid ferment, that in time destroys their enamel and ruins them. It prevents the unspeak-ble annoyance caused by defective teeth, if it used while they can yet be saved from the destructive effects of tartar and other impurities.

How to Shorten Life.
The receipt is simple. You have only to take a violent cold and neglect it. Abernethy, the great English surgeon, asked a lady who told him she only had a cough: "What would you have? The plague?" Beware of "only cougha." The worst casee can, however, be cured by Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. In whooping cough and croup it immediately allays irritation, and is sure to prevent a fatal termination of the disease. Sold by druggists.
